

They've been trying for centuries to eradicate our culture,
Like vultures who pick the so called "entertaining" aspects, but Leave the rest.

See as long as we don't dress, act, or speak
Outside of our recommended means;
they say we can live how we choose and be free.

In other words, it is the 21st century.

You better kiss ass,
Shut the fuck up,
Or get locked in a penitentiary.

What they give us, say to us, and the ways in which they act;
show that,
one they hold the power,
two we better know it,
and three they do what they must to get us to shut up.

Even if it means convicting a cop for killing a black man, or giving the native americans a place to stand even though it is still federal land, or give immigrants citizenship but still threaten them with deportation without any explanation.

They think that by giving us a momentary step up, we'll be grateful and step back, while choosing to ignore the fact they say, " America is great "
but still try to keep our laws the same.

Change to them looks like calling us "african americans", instead of "niggers", and
Throwing us in jail instead of pulling the trigger.

How can we be free in a country that forcefully raped,
enslaved our families histories?

I forgot duh!

We must adopt new names, perm our hairs, accept new traditions and try to be white.

No more "yes masta" it's "yes sir".

You better be patriotic for the republic in which we stand.

Do not be mistaken though, behind

These culture vultures lies, this is an all man's land.
